

Announcement - CVN meeting 2009

The CVN meeting in 2009 will be in Edinburgh on 10th and 11th Feb.

This is a meeting open to all interested in Virology, including all BMS, clinical Scientists, Registrars and Consultants.

Registration

Please fill in booking form by 1st December 2008.

Location of Meeting:

In the Ball room, Assembly rooms, Edinburgh

www.assemblyroomsedinburgh.co.uk

Accommodation and Evening meal on 10th February

In The George Hotel, Edinburgh

www.edinburghgeorgehotel.co.uk

About 300m apart.

Both are situated in the heart of Edinburgh New Town,

Cost

If you are employed by CVN member laboratory there is no charge for conference. Conference attendees who share a twin room in George hotel have no payment.

If you would rather have a single room or your own double bed or not stay at George hotel then you will need to pay for that accommodation.

Programme.

The invited speakers is being finalised at present.

There is the opportunity for offered papers. The deadline for an abstract must be received by 1st December 2008. The format for abstract is Introduction, Aims, methods, results and conclusions. No more than 300 characters.

These should be submitted by email to Kate Templeton email address:
Kate.templeton@luht.scot.nhs.uk

Transport.

CAR PARKING

There are NCP Car Parks situated at Castle Terrace (West End) and St James Centre (East End), both have height restrictions of 6ft 10in or 2 metres.

A map of central car parks can be found on the link www.edinburgh.gov.uk

BUSES

There are a few buses, which run along George Street however the main services operate via Princes Street, Frederick Street and Hanover Street. For information about routes and times please contact www.lothianbuses.co.uk or 0131 555 6363

RAIL

The main station in Edinburgh is Edinburgh Waverley Station situated at the East End of Princes Street within

5 - 10 minutes walking distance

AIR

The airport in Edinburgh has regular bus links to Waverly station. Transfer from the airport takes 30 minutes. www.edinburghairport.com